

Government Engineering College

Bharuch

A Report on

World Youth Skill Day Celebration

Date: 15-7-2015

World Youth Skill Day Celebration

Today World Youth skill day is celebrated in Government Engineering College Bharuch. The Head of the different Department and faculty members had given brief lecture on importance of skill development in Engineering. The faculty of civil department has shown use of various structural design and Structural detailing softwares which are useful to students. The students were benefited with this lectures. Department of mechanical engineering organized ppt and created awareness regarding skill development , models of pass out students were displayed and exhibited. Electrical Engg dept emphasized on importance of skill development.

Faculty of EC department had given a speech on mobile application development. He explained the easy way of application development using MIT APP INVENTOR.

