

A

Short Report on
One Day Workshop on

Date:5th October 2013

Introduction to IPR and Patent search Analysis and Report

Organized By

Electronics and Communication Department

Government Engineering College, Bharuch

Introduction to IPR and Patent search Analysis and Report on 5th October 2013

Electronics and Communication department of Government Engineering College, Bharuch had organized a one day workshop on “Introduction to IPR and Patent search Analysis and Report” on 5th October 2013. All Faculty members and Students of Electronics and Communication Branch had been participated in this workshop. Students acquired the knowledge about the procedure to file the patent and and how to search the patent related to the topic of their Project. They were happy to get such inspiration and put to step ahead with the world.

Session starts with Introductory Speech by Prof. K. G. Bhuva, Head of Department. Prof. K. G. Bhuva had given an inspirational speech to the student and encourages them to file a patent for their project.

Introductory Speech by Prof. K G Bhuva

Introduction to IPR and Patent search Analysis and Report on 5th October 2013

There after the first session had been taken by Prof. M. A. Jajal. He had explained various aspect of the IPR and different properties cover under the term IPR. He explained the importance of the patent and procedure for filing the patent. He also explained the copyright, trademark and geographical indication also.

Prof. M A Jajal explaining IPR

Second session was taken by Prof. S. J. Dawda. He demonstrate the patent search and how to identify and distinguish the problem after patents search related to their current topic/problem definition (IDP/UDP)

Prof. S J Dawda explaining PSAR

All faculties and students are gained the knowledge about “IPR, Patents search and Analysis Report”. Student learn the importance of PSAR and Patents in their career.

Introduction to IPR and Patent search Analysis and Report on 5th October 2013

Students and Staff attending the workshop