

GOVERNMENT ENGINEERING COLLEGE, BHARUCH
TEACHER'S DAY CELEBRATION ON 5TH SEPTEMBER 2013

A SHORT REPORT

Every year teacher's day is celebrated in memory of Dr. Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan. In Gujarat, this day is celebrated with enthusiasm in which the entire body of education takes part and celebrates it together. The day is celebrated by all the teachers, students and they are encouraged not only by the education minister and the Governor of Gujarat but also by our honorable Chief Minister. The program is celebrated in Gandhinagar, Gujarat and live telecast is provided by BISAG to all the schools and colleges of Gujarat. All the schools and colleges participate in the celebration.

Nodal Officer With Team Member.

In Government Engineering College, Bharuch the day was celebrated with enthusiasm by all the students and teachers. More than 100 students of GEC, Bharuch vigorously participated in the program and enjoyed the celebration. The students of Govt. Polytechnic, Rajpipla also joined GEC students for the celebration.

Student Gathering for the Program

Speech by Education Minister Shree Bhupendrasinh Chudasma

The live telecast began with the introductory speech of our Education Minister Shree Bhupendrasinh Chudasma. He expressed the importance of the teacher in our society. He also emphasized the roles and duties of a teacher in our society. He said that the teacher should present himself as an example of good character and inspire others to do the same. He further suggested the role of a teacher in shaping the society. His speech was followed by the felicitation program in which the selected best teachers of the state were given a certificate of honor and shawl by honorary Chief Minister of Gujarat and Governor of Gujarat.

Staff and Student Enjoying Speech of Hon'ble CM

Staff and Student Enjoying Speech by Hon. CM

This program was followed by the speech of Hon. Chief Minister Shri Narendra Modi. He mentioned the contribution of Dr. Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan in the field of education. He further announced a scheme of expanding the scope of the celebration of the day and suggested to promote the best teachers with better prizes and also suggested to form special committee that would select the best teachers. He emphasized the need for the devoted teachers in our society and proposed the exploratory idea of learning as more important than conventional ways of teaching. The speech was followed by Hon. Governor Smt. Dr. Kamla Beniwal. She suggested a few important points of reference beneficial for our society. She showed a better correlation between education and democracy. She also suggested that better education leads to better democracy. The speech was followed by our national anthem.

Afterwards, our chief Minister Shree Narendra Modi engaged himself with the conversation with the children. A few questions were asked by invitee school children and they were answered very practically by the Chief Minister.

The entire program was enthusiastically celebrated by all the teachers and students of the college. All the teachers of GEC, Bharuch, teachers of Govt. Polytechnic, Rajpipla and the students of both the colleges enjoyed and participated in the celebration till the end.